A DISCUSSION WITH CALIFORNIA AIR RESOURCES BOARD

Join the Harbor Association of Industry and Commerce (HAIC) as we speak with California Air Resources Board (CARB) Assembly Appointed Member Hector De La Torre. CARB is charged with protecting the public from the harmful effects of air pollution and developing programs and actions to fight climate change. California has pioneered a range of practical approaches that have set the standard for effective air and climate programs for the nation and the world, from requirements for clean cars and fuels to adopting innovative solutions to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.
